The Boymans Museum, on the Schiedamsche Dyk, contains the City Library of Rotterdam, a collection of 30,000 volumes, and a gallery of pictures, which was founded by Mr. F. J. O. Boymans (died 1847), with a bequest of about 360 paintings. This was reduced to 163 by a disastrous fire in 1864, but has been increased at various times until it now numbers about 450 pictures and over 2,000 drawings and engravings. The present building was completed in 1867.
